

Thank you very much for the wonderful week at this lovely place and for your hospitality. It was a special experience for us to live in a middleage tower. We really enjoyed our stay and we have seen a lot of castles in the surroundings. But one of the most interesting monuments are the ruins of your castle. The big ruin is very impressiv and full of mysteries. We wish you the power to solve these mysteries and to preserve it. It's worth it!

family Kieseewetter
from Dresden in Germany.